

Use of 440 band is required to maintain repeater systems which are necessary for emergency communications. Interference with this band will lessen the readiness of these systems.

Further, SAVI has access to other bands for this purpose, or can even use the business section of the bands already established.